PREFACE

Most of this material was collected in the 1930's and 1940's, while corresponding with the late Grant Wright, who gave us the benefit of his years of work on the Wright family. He also gave his data to the late Mrs. Lillie Wright White before she published her WRIGHT HISTORY in 1943, but many lines were not carried down to the present generation. Now with the help of Mary Lawton Wright (wife of Harry M. Wright, a descendant of Philburt Wright), we will add what we have to Philburt Wright's descendants, and what has been uncovered on another brother, Evans Wright, who died in Macon County, Missouri.

For other descendants of Richard Wright, Sr., see Mrs. White's book mentioned above, and manuscripts by Osee Johnson Knouf, Vol. I, Benjamin Wright, Vol. II, Richard Wright, Jr. and Vol. III, Jesse Wright (son of Benjamin Wright) by Freda Landrus Misenhimer. See also TWO BROTHERS- WILLIAM AND AMOS WRIGHT by Mary D. Stoops. All ofthese will be found in Newberry Library, Chicago, Illinois, D.A.R. Library, Washington, D.C. and some in Iowa and Indiana State Libraries.

Richard Wright, Sr.
whose will was probated Feb. 8, 1785, Rowan Co.,N.C.

I. Richard Wright Sr.

Grant Wright, who did much research on the Wright family in the 1920's and before, said, "Tradition has it that Richard Wright, Sr. was born in England, emigrated to Wales, came back into England, and he, with four brothers, immigrated to America probably about 1746. They came to the Eastern coast of Maryland. here they separated. Two went into New England, one went into New York, and Richard with one brother came into Virginia, then to Randolph Co.,North Carolina. Later Richard moved to Rowan Co., N.C. where he spent the remainder of his life."

We have been unable to find ship records to prove that several Wright brothers came to America about this time.

PIONEER PREACHERS OF INDIANA by Evans, published in 1862, says on page 29, speaking of John Wright (grandson of Richard Wright Sr.) that "his father's ancestors came from England and settled on the east coast of Maryland. Some went to the Carolinas."

Grant Wright's manuscript said also, "It seems that Richard Wright, Sr. was a large land owner and accumulated well for one in his day. He was a Revolutionary soldier, a private in the North Carolina Militia from Rowan County. It is said that his five oldest sons also fought in the Revolution."

We know that Richard Wright, Sr., his sons, Benjamin, Richard Jr. and William, have been used for D.A.R. membership. We have no data on John Wright and very little about Peter Wright. Some of the National D.A.R. numbers for these Wrights are: 152225 for Richard, Jr.; 220925 used Richard, Sr. and Benjamin in supplementary papers (Add. Vol. 331); No. 291647 proved Benjamin Wright's line. William Wright was pensioned and his line has been used many times for D.A.R. His Pension Claim No. 16301.

D.A.R. said on the early papers that Richard Wright, Sr. was born 1730 in England, married in Rowan Co.,N.C. 1748. We do not know where they obtained these dates and believe them to be estimated by early N.C. genealogists. His wife's name when he died in Jan. or Feb. 1785, was ANN. She probated will on Feb. 8,1785.

Recent search has found the following: Rowan Co. N.C. Deed Book 5, page 366, 10-8-1763, Arthur Parr and wife Margaret of Orange Co.,N.C. convey to Richard Wright of the same county, 1/2 of a tract Granted to William Wiley, in Rowan County, 5-23-1758, of 640 acres. Witnesses: Thomas Donnell, William Hamilton. (This is the first deed we have of Richard Wright, so far.)
Rowan Co. Deed Book #5, page 449, 4-8-1764. RICHARD WRIGHT & wife ANN, of Orange Co., N.C., convey to Harmon Husbands of same, 320 acres of Fork of Haw River in Rowan Co.,for 32 lbs.10sh., being 1/2 of the tract granted to William Wiley,5-23-1758, of 640 Acres. Wiley let Arthur Parr have this.

Rowan was formed in 1753, Orange in 1752, Guilford in 1771 and Randolph in 1779. Since Rowan and Orange were large counties at first, records may still be found in otherscounties we have not contacted. Work now is being done in Prince William Co.,Va. as records show a Richard Wright lived there in 1758-1761, perhaps longer.

(The Clerk who sent this WILL says the "Waters of Nary" could be "Uary" and if so, it probably meant the River Uharie.)

This will was probated Feb. 8, 1785 by EVINS WRIGHT and JAMES MORGAN JUNR. His widow ANN, and WILLIAM WRIGHT qualified giving bond of 200 pounds with JAMES MORGAN as security.

CHILDREN OF RICHARD WRIGHT,Sr. and wife ANN.

Grant Wright said he had the names and dates of birth of Richard Wright,Sr.'s children, from Elder Ezekiel Wright (a grandson of Richard Wright, Jr.) of Putnam Co.,Ind. who sent them to his father many years ago. Miss Mary Lee Woodrum of Putnam Co., Indiana, says her father also had the same names and dates. She is a descendant of another son of Richard Wright, Jr's.

2-1 Benjamin Wright, born 1752. Married 1st Barbara Morgan; 2nd, Patsey--------.(Wives names from U.S. Wright.)
2-2 Peter Wright, born 1754. (According the Wes Lee Wright's Bible, Peter Wright died Oct. 1821.)
2-3 Richard Wright, Jr. born 1757. Married 1st, Nancy Morgan; 2nd, Cary (or Cara) Kittrell.
2-4 John Wright, born 1759. Revolutionary Soldier. No definite information about him or family.
2-5 William Wright born March 25th,1761. Married Martha (called Patsey) Morgan. Wm. was pensioned.
2-6 Evans Wright born 1762. Married Rebecca -------

2-7 Amos Wright, born 1764. Married 1st, Elizabeth Low: 2nd, Margaret Davis.
2-8 Philburt Wright, born March 29, 1768. Married 1st, Mary (Molly) Sears, 2nd, Elizabeth Devin Beck.

2-9 to 12 Daughters.

Grant Wright remembered that Josiah Johnson (who married Richard Wright,Jr's daughter Sally) had told older members of the family that Richard Wright Sr. had a family of eight sons and four daughters. Jackson County History, Indiana, says of the above WILLIAM WRIGHT that he was one of twelve sons. We believe it should have said oneof twelve children instead.

Descendants of Richard Wright, Jr. still live near the old homestead close to the border of Davidson Co., and near Randolph Co. line. They say that McCager (Micajah in Richard Wright,Jr's will) Wright had an Aunt Betsy Pearce (or Pierce) of Randolph Co., N.C., and another Aunt who married Allen Rodgers. We believe these may be two of old Richard's daughters. We have been unable to contact descendants.

Several women have joined the DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN COLONISTS through Richard Wright, Sr. Mabel Elsie Johnson Jensen's Nat. No. is 12670 for DAC.

EVANS WRIGHT

EVANS WRIGHT and some descendants.

Most of this material was furnished by the late Prof. W. Wayne Smith, of Moscow, Idaho. His wife was a relative of Evans'grandchildren through the Coffeys, and he had done much research on various lines in which he and his wife were interested.

2-6 EVANS WRIGHT was born in 1762, according to Grant Wright and Miss Mary Lee Woodrum's lists. He was not named in his father's will (Richard Wright, Sr.) but was a witness to the will and probated the will with his Mother, Ann Wright, on Feb.8,1785.

Close to William and Richard Wright, Jr. in Rowan Co., N.C. census for 1790, is listed an EVANS WRIGHT, as head of family with two females. We believe at that time he was a young married man with one child.

Prof. Smith said Evans Wright removed with his brother, Amos Wright, to Powell's Valley, Va., then later between 1800 and 1806, to Wayne Co., Ky., then to Howard Co., Mo. in the fall of 1829. Cumberland Co., Ky. (then next to Wayne Co.) census of 1810, gives an EVANS WRIGHT over 45, 1 male under 10, 1 10-16, 2 16-26, 5 females and 1 slave. Next to Evans Wright in Cumberland Co. Ky., 1810 census, was a JOHN WRIGHT over 45 with three females. We suspect this was Evans' brother John, but have been unable to contact descendants or prove in any other way.

Chariton County, Missouri, which was very large in early times, gives a record of EVAN WRIGHT and wife deeding land to CLAIBORNE WRIGHT, July 12,1832, E 1/2 of N W 1/4 of 1-54-15, in Book A, page 244. Evans Wright's wife was named Rebecca. We do not know her last name.

MACON COUNTY MISSOURI HISTORY says EVANS WRIGHT, Sr. was an early settler of Bevier Twp., Macon County, Missouri.

3-3 Johnson Wright married Eliza Jane Trimble. In the "History of Randolph & Macon Counties, Missouri", published at St. Louis, by Nat. Hist. Co. in 1884, there is a sketch of Eliza Jane Wright (widow) on page 642. It says: "This very superior lady was born Feb. 1, 1819, in Montgomery Co., Kentucky, the daughter of Robert & Elizabeth Trimble, both natives of the same state. Robert Trimble, her father, a farmer of State Creek, near Mt. Sterling, was a man of wide reputation through all the country around. The subject of this sketch grew up on the farm, and in 1835, moved to Missouri with her parents, settling in Randolph County. In 1840 she married John Wright, a son of Evans and Rebecca Wright, originally from Kentucky and a note of note. He held the office of justice of the peace, and was at one time representative of the county. Mr. Wright died April 21, 1867, leaving ten children of whom nine are living.

"Mrs. Wright, who raises considerable stock, owns 260 acres. So wisely and well does Mrs. Wright order her affairs that it is hard to believe that the soft hand of a woman holds the reins. She has the respect and hearty admiration of all who know her. She is a member of the Christian Church."

Mr. Wright died in the Blankenbaker Nursing Home, Friday Aug. 20, after a long illness. He was a lifelong resident of this county and a member of the First Christian Church. A graduate of Eckisi Academy in Salem, Indiana, and Bryant Stratton Business College in Louisville, Ky., Mr. Wright was a student of geology, only recently completing a four year correspondence course in Geology with Indiana University.

He was also nationally known in the field of genealogy, compiling histories of the Wright and Wiseman families. A member of the Sons of the American Revolution; also a past member of the State Historical Society.

Born July 3, 1868 in Washington County, son of Philbert Marion and Elizabeth (Wiseman) Wright; his closest relative, a sister, Miss Cora Wright, died in 1903.

Pallbearers were: Wm. McKillip, Carl Martin, Jess Brown, Howard Moore, Carl Colglazier and Silas Mitchell.

Mrs. L.L. Cook was organist and Mrs. Dorothy Marshall, harpist. Burial in Crown Hill cemetery beside his parents and sister.

Grant Franklin Wright, born July 3, 1868 on farm 3 1/2 miles S.W. of Salem, Indiana, died Aug. 20, 1954, aged 86 years, 1 mo. and 17 days, having spent his entire life on the farm where he was born. A great grandson of Philburt Wright, who immigrated to Washington County in 1809, he was son of Philbird Marion and Elizabeth (Wiseman) Wright. Last of his family, his father, mother and sister having preceeded him in death, he often referred to himself as "the last leaf on the tree." Grant loved his family very dearly, and after their passing, he chose to stay close to his home and his memories, seldom leaving its premises.

He attended the public schools in Washington County and received his higher eduaction in Eckisi Academy in Salem, Ind. and Bryant Stratton Business College in Louisville, Ky. He continued his education thru reading, having an extensive library.

It is "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh" and those who knew Grant Wright, knew he was deeply religious. His library overflowed with books on religion, Books on Prayer, on Religious History, books on "How to Worship In the Home". He read religion, talked religion, practised religion by being a good neighbor, by loving his fellow men and by being interested in their welfare, by contributing to every chartiable demand.

To him who in the love of Nature holds Communion with her visible forms, she speaks a various language. Because he was religious, God talked to him thru Science and Nature. He studied intensely the earth's formation and only recently had completed a four year course by correspondence in Geology, from Indiana Univ.

Because of his aesthetic nature, he also loved to write poetry and to play his violin. Grant was proud of his family tree and spent no end of time and money in research work in Genealogy, having had correspondence with folks in nearly every State in the Union. He had compiled histories of the Wright and Wiseman families.

He was Member of the Sons of the American Revolution and a past member of the Indiana State Historical Society.
He experienced his first great loss with the passing of his family; his second loss came with his failing eyesight. Life then to him, became heavy because he viewed the world thru books.

With great Faith, he left his home here for a home Eternal. In an excerpt from his own poem, he expresses that Faith:

"The beautiful springs of life that flow down the mountain side
Thru the valley and into caverns they seem to hide
Carrying a message of immortal truth to a world of men
The beautiful springs of life lure us home again."

He leavse to mourn his passing, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Trueblood. Mr Truebbodd has assisted Grant with farming operations since 1905. He leaves also Mrs. William Tippen, of Jeffersonville, Indiana, daughter of the Truebloods and her family of whom Grant was so proud, and a host of relatives and friends.

Harrison and Wright Families.

(Ancestors of Jane Harrison, wife of Rev. William Cravens and Great Grandmother of Anna Clark Shanks, wife of Evans H.Wright, 4-5, page 37.)

Jane (some accounts say Jean) Harrison was the eighth child of Col. Benjamin Harrison and wife Mary. She was born in ~~[illegible]~~, died 1835. She married Jan.29,1794 Rev. William Cravens, son of John Cravens. John Cravens (1722-17780 was born in Sussex Co., Del. m. Margaret (Heath) Dyer. dau. of John and Margaret (Heath and widow of Wm. Dyer. They settled in Indiana.

Col. Benjamin Harrison was the sixth child of Daniel and Margaret (Cravens) Harrison and was one of Rockington's (Va.) most distinguished soldiers of the Revolutionary War.

Capt. Daniel Harrison (1701-1770), eldest child of Isiah Harrison, b. Sept.27,1689, and his second wife, Abigail, was born either at Oyster Bay or Smithtown, Long Island, N.Y.(probably the former). In 1721, Daniel Harrison migrated with his father Isiah to Sussex Co.,Del. There (1730) after his first marriage he purchased 75 acres of land which had belonged to his half brother, Gideon, Harrison, who had died the year before. In 1732, his father deeded him 250 acre share of Maiden Plantation when he divided this 950 acres of land.

Isiah Harrison, the father of Capt. Daniel, was the son of Isiah Harrison and his second wife, Elizabeth (Wright) Harrison, who were married in 1688. Elizabeth Wright was the daughter of Gideon Wright of Oyster Bay, Long Island, N.Y. who died June,1685.
